

ICEL INTERMOUNTAIN Credit Education League

WHAT IS ICEL?

ICEL is a group of credit professionals from NACM member companies who recognize the importance of quality credit management in business and promote professional development by offering educational and leadership opportunities through quality programs, publications and scholarships.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Anyone interested in furthering their business credit education.

WHY SHOULD I BELONG?

Monthly Meetings – Credit & career oriented meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at 11:45, usually at the Red Lion Hotel, 161 West 600 South, Salt Lake City.

Educational Conferences – National and Regional Conferences are held throughout the year in various locations. All members are invited to attend these conferences.

NACM National Professional Certification Program – NACM sponsors three professional designations that enable credit professionals to demonstrate their commitment to excellence in their field. NACM is the only body to offer these nationally recognized, professional designations. CBA, CBF & CCE.

Scholarships – As a member of ICEL, after only one year's membership, and with 80% attendance at the monthly meetings, you may submit a scholarship request for classes, educational conferences, and/or professional designation exam fees.
